

DUXLING

the smarter iPad case designed for K-2 students

All-in-one protection, handle, and stand for iPad

Sleep like a baby knowing your iPads are cradled in safety. The Duxling Case for iPad comes from a long line of ultra-protective, high-performing Dux iPad cases, continuing the family legacy. Built with not one, but two handles, making it easy for K-2 students to use and carry around, and encased in robust, impact-absorbing material, the Duxling is already at the top of its class and sure to be the teacher's pet.

Smarter Features

- » Ultra protective, designed to exceed Mil-Spec drop standards and the rigours of a child's uses
- » Effortlessly adjust to multiple viewing angles for the user's convenience
- » Sturdy innovative two-handle design makes it easy to carry for younger kids who tend to be accident-prone
- » Made of EVA foam with a clear PC backing for customization
- » Easy access power and volume buttons
- » Meets CPSIA Test Requirements
